ENUMERATORS AIDED IN WORK BY RESIDENTS

Make Oakland Register 250,000 is Slogan That Citizens Loyal Support During the Taking of Present Census

Supervisor Donohue Explains That Information Gathered is Strictly Confidential and Totals Only to Be Published

Work of the 350 census enumerators at work counting the population of the East Bay cities progressed smoothly during the first day, and results indicate that the enumeration will be accomplished in the preliminary two weeks according to Census Supervisor Donohue.

"The slogan, make Oakland register 250,000 has taken hold of Oakland residents strongly and most of them are co-operating in every way to aid the census enumerators," Donohue said.

In several cases enumerators have met persons who objected to giving the information required by the census, but in all cases they have answered the enumerators' questions, although some persons have delayed the work by refusing to answer.

ABSOLUTE SECRECY WILL BE MAINTAINED.

"There are two points, which I made clear, I believe will stop the hesitancy of the people to answer some of the questions which the census puts to them. The first point is that absolute secrecy is maintained in the collection and compilation of the information gathered."

Donohue explained in a preliminary conference with his enumerators this morning when the results of the first day's work were discussed. He continued:

Dashens cooked in cream taste like the Missouri potato, but have the flavor of a roasted chestnut, Dr. Moore amplified. They are related to the Egyptian taro, commonly referred to as the "elephant yam."

Deportation Faces Twenty Persons Caught in Oakland Radical Round-Up

LOCAL POLICE TAKE PART IN GENERAL RAID

Government Warrants Issued for Score of Eastbay Men and Women and They Will Be Put in Detention Camp

Majority of Suspects Shown to Be Germans, With Number of Russians; Federal Secret Service Man Plan Campaign

Government warrants will be served today upon the twenty Oakland and Eastbay men and women taken in last night's spectacular round-up of alleged "reds," and they will be removed to a detention camp for examination and deportation. The Oakland raid was part of a country-wide drive which resulted in the arrest of nearly 500 radicals. Those arrested here are not those indicted yesterday by the grand jury, but are men and women whose names were obtained partly through the raid of the Communist Labor party headquarters in Loring Hall some weeks ago, and who have been under investigation and surveillance since.

In that raid a large number of names were obtained, and as a result of the activity of the Oakland loyalty bureau, many of them were traced until, according to Inspector Fenton C. Thompson, head of the squad, the Oakland bureau has the most complete and comprehensive list of any bureau operating in the entire country. The local bureau has supplied the Department of Justice with much of the information upon which the arrests over the nation were made last night.

The twenty syndicalist suspects were arranged this morning in the police court of Judge Mortimer Smith and made a motley array as they filed up the police court benches.

Judge Mortimer Smith informed them that as they had been arrested at the instigation of the federal government and were now being held until federal warrants should be served on them, it would be impossible to grant bail in any instance.

He told them of their rights in the case and said that if the warrants were not served by next Tuesday, they would come up in police court for preliminary hearing on the charge of violating the state syndicalism law.

NEW CLASSIFIED AS PARANOID BY U. OF C. EXPERT

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 3.—Harry S. New's mental condition was the subject of further detailed testimony when his trial opened today.

Dr. E. E. Hoag of Pasadena, mental expert and special lecturer for the University of California, took the stand as an alienist for the defense. He analyzed New's case as follows:

New is constitutionally an inferior person; is of a psychopathic personality; a paranoiac; suffers from dementia praecox; is feeble minded and insane.

He based his testimony on an examination of New, a study of New's history and of the evidence and depositions presented at the trial.

Big Doings in Class "A" Division Should Be at Fruitvale and San Leandro.

By EDDIE MURPHY.

Here we are on the eve of another set of games to be put up by the boys sporting uniforms in the Class A Division of the Oakland Tribune Mid-Winter League and baseball fans of the Eastbay cities seem to be more joyful over it, than they have been on any other Saturday before a big game. The Judson Iron Workers appear like they will be the first fellows to parade into Pennantville, as they are well ahead of their rivals, the Halton-Dieters and C. L. Best Tractors and the distance to that town which every ball player in the country likes to reach, is only a short way off. Three more games for the Judsons and Tractors and four for the Halton-Dieters will leave some team safely in Pennantville, and then will begin the packing away of baseball suits and bats until the spring time.

The chance for the Tractors or Halton-Dieters beating the Judsons out of the flag are very small, but fans are holding out hope that the chance will grow to a large-sized one from two of the four games to be played in the class A division tomorrow. A couple of exciting ball games are on the class A program. The Judson Iron Workers will be at Fruitvale, taking the lead in the class A division. The Halton-Dieters will be at San Leandro, and the C. L. Best Tractors will be at Fruitvale. The Judson Iron Workers will be at Fruitvale, taking the lead in the class A division. "MIDNIGHT LEAGUE" BOXERS WILL GET NOTHING FOR FARCE

Colored Heavyweights Almost Put Crusher on Boxing Across the Bay.

By BOB SHAND.

What prompted Harry Wills and Jack Thompson to hippo-drome their four-round fight across the bay Thursday afternoon? The big fellows were guaranteed magnificent medals for simply stepping four rounds, but still they decided to put on a waltz and take the chance of being forever barred in this vicinity and having their reputations besmirched in the lil old record book. The Midnight League, consisting of Sam Langford, Joe Jeanette, Harry Wills, Sam McVey, Jack Thompson and Jeff Clarke played the eastern circuit for a long time and gathered oodles of real money. Occasionally there were yelps from the fans that the big fellows were not doing their best, but the cash customers proved bears for punishment and were always ready to pungle up their good kale when any two members of the league decided to don the gloves.

Willis lost the most to the frame because he was a popular idol in San Francisco. No colored boxer since the days of Joe Jackson had such a large following. The wizard diamond, across the face, red and white stockings, in the feet, and a white cap, were the new look of the players.

REVELATIONS of a WIFE

By ADELE GARRISON

"You see," Lillian explained in answer to my glance of startled inquiry, "this particular business in which you're involved is coming to a crisis, and we must narrow the field of action to one place. For many reasons I prefer that place to be your home in Marin."

"One reason is that Harry believes you to be here, and in order to protect you he will try to make Draper and her gang believe that you have left. That will send the whole pack to Marin, and I believe if we make no mistake in setting the snare we can be sure to get them."

"I couldn't repress a shiver. There was a relentlessness in Lillian's tone that boded ill for any member of the 'pack' of which she spoke. I realized—knew she must believe that Harry Underwood would doubtless share the fate of the rest of the gang, and the realization made me feel ill on Lillian's account as well as on my own."

"Harry's demand for that paper," went on Lillian, "proves conclusively that the specific object of Draper and her gang is the recovery of that document which you have sent to Allen Drake, and which Drake returned to you after deciphering it. I have long suspected it. Now I have the proof, and the knowledge by their object is the possible for me to figure out their probable course of action, and to anticipate their movements."

"I HOPE THEY WILL BREAK IN!"

She paused, and there was that in her manner which emboldened me to ask a question, something I rarely

COUGHED NIGHT AND DAY FOR TWO YEARS

Mr. Parkhurst Found Quick Relief From Chronic Bronchial Trouble.

"Two years ago I had a gripe which left me with a bad cough. Finally this became chronic bronchial asthma, and four doctors said it could not be cured."

"I commenced taking everything my friends recommended, but I got worse instead of better. For two years I was unable to do any work except to cough constantly night and day, which was the hardest work I ever did."

"Finally I got hold of Milks Emulsion. It benefited me so much, right from the start, that it came as a God-send. In two months I was perfectly cured. I gained back my strength and flesh rapidly."—J. M. Parkhurst, Leon St., W. Terre Haute, Ind.

Coughs like this seldom yield to local treatments. The surest way to strengthen the whole system and overcome any obstinate cough, Milks Emulsion is a remarkable remedy.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritious food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physicks. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions, and if not cured, we will refund your money. No questions asked. The results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made.

Here is an easy way to save $2. and yet have the best cough syrup you ever tried.

You're probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they can't get a better home without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will quickly cure it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times the cost. It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. OUR OWN MOVIES do when Lillian is outlining a plan: "What will you do with Betty if you close this house?"

"Give her a vacation with pay," Lillian returned promptly. "She deserves one, and with good luck it will be closed long."

"Aren't you afraid the enemy agents will get in and ransack the place while it's closed?" I ventured.

Lillian smiled.

"Not that they will ransack the place," she said significantly. "I hope they will break in, for they will find a warm and unexpected welcome."

"Oh!" I exclaimed, enlightened. "You expect to have service agents guarding the place while it's ostensibly closed?"

"Exactly," returned Lillian, rising. "And now I must get busy, pronto. I must send guards to the Marvin house who will watch the place unknown to you mother-in-law until I can get there. It will never do to have her frightened out of her senses. She is worried enough now about those mysterious men who come about incidentally. I want to have a look at them when I go out there."

A SURPRISING PHONE CALL

Something in her tone struck me, gave me the impression that Lillian had a theory of her own about our bizarre, melodramatic neighbors which didn't exactly coincide with that of my mother-in-law.

"This won't interfere with your little visit with Edith Fairfax," she said. "I cannot possibly make arrangements to go to Marin for five days, so our luncheon to the two girls can go on just the same. I will tell Betty about it now, and then it will be off my mind."

I couldn't help the mental wish that I were equally as fortunate as the door closed behind her. Lillian could dismiss the coming of the guests once the question of their ordinary entertainment was settled. But I—the very thought of meeting again the girl about whose friendship with Dicky I had such gloomy, sinister forebodings unnerred me.

Why had I arranged this interview? I asked with bitter distaste for the task I had impudently set myself. Far better, much more comfortable with my dignity not to have yielded to my wild surmises concerning the girl, not to have planned to meet her with the mad hope of ascertaining the truth concerning my husband's interest in her.

Retrospection or introspection was vain now, however. I was committed to the interview which Lillian's quiet tact had converted into a luncheon for four. But my brain whirled with the conflicting emotions which the prospect of seeing the pretty little art student awakened. Rage, jealousy, shame at my own silliness in harboring the unworthy emotions all had their will with me. One thing stood out clear and distinct above the storm of swirling thoughts. The old, passionate, wild intuition I have never quenched for Dicky was still mine—unwatered, unguessed, anything by this wild notion I had taken connecting Dicky's unexplained absence with Edith Fairfax.

The realization of this in curious fashion did much to restore to me a measure of the self-respect which I had lost or at least mislaid in the days following Dicky's departure. The days were memorable by my encounter with the gang of conspirators at the camouflaged windmill wireless.

My cheeks flushed with shame at the remembrance that there had been hours when I had questioned the strength of my own conjugal feelings.

And as if the thought had been a psychic summons from my soul to another's, I heard the tinkle of the telephone bell, followed by Lillian's appearance in the doorway.

Captain Hugh Grantland is on the phone, Maggie," she said gravely.

LIFE.

The grieving and the hurt of life
Are often hard to bear,
And every hour of strife
Is tintured with despair.
There's much of pain and much of woe
For every man to meet,
Life's burdens weary us, but Oh,
His happy days are sweet.

Sometimes the dismal days seem long,
Sometimes our hearts are sad;
We wonder as we hear their song
What makes the robins glad.
But when our skies grow blue once more
And we have dried our tears,
How bright the sun appears!
And enemies our path beset
And we must bear their blows;
When hate and envy make us fret
The world seems filled with foes.
Then we would shun the haunts of men
And go where striving ends,
But life is all worth while again
When we are with our friends.

Life's burdens oft are hard to bear
But all its joys are sweet;
Along the dreary lanes of care
Men walk with lagging feet.
Then twice beneath the hurt and pain
Which fate to all must give,
But when the laughter rings again,
How good it seems to live!

Really, if you persist in making love to me every time you call, I shall have to ask you to discontinue your visits. "Darling, be my wife and I'll promise never to speak another word of love to you as long as I live."

"Those women have been setting there for an hour or more," "You shouldn't say 'setting,' my dear. I mean 'sitting.'"

"No, setting is what I meant. I think they're hatching out trouble for somebody."

"It does not matter what my enemies may accuse me of," said Li Hung Chang, "for all my life I have been on the side of law and order, and I have never inquired whether those twin institutions were white or yellow. Decency is like gold, the same in all countries."

"You don't seem to know your way," said the officer to the civilian, whom he had seen three times in half an hour. "Oh, yes," replied the other. "I'm imitating a cab driver, a stranger to his destination."

Clubs Again Take Up Work

By EDNA B. KINARD.

"Who gives himself up his aims, feeds three," is not just poetry. The Oakland Club is finding it most practical proof. With the opening of the new term, the Daby Welfare Clinic which the members are insuring in the Oakland school, will inaugurate its work of educating and instructing sturdy children to the nation by looking out after their defects, correcting their diet and protecting them against disease in the most advanced ways which science knows. The spoils, largely made by already been furnished and provided with all the equipment for conducting the work which may be needed. The expense of maintaining the small center which is in the heart of a densely populated section have already been taken care of by the directorate.

Mothers pressed by ailing children, small incomes and large costs of decent food and proper clothing, make a deep appeal to the club women. How the price of a pair of shoes may be a tragedy is sensed by them. So they are hastening to come to the help of those struggling mothers whose self-respect betrays them in keeping up the battle for the sake of their little ones. Without a sense of shame or loss of pride the women who visit the clinic may accept the warm clean wrapper, the crisp new dress, the extra undergarments which a nurse or district lady slip into their hands when it is most needed.

All of Oakland Club women, not just a few, will manufacture the garments. Wednesday, January 21, has been appointed a general thimble day when busy fingers will contribute to the home relief sewing. It is thus that the club women are making practical proof out of classic poetry.

Time will turn backward for more than 100 members of the Lakewood Women's Club Monday when a children's party celebrates the holiday of the New Year. The children, who are being carefully excluded for the bit of foolishness that is not to fall on unsympathetic ears. In pigtails and abbreviated skirts the district matrons will assemble at the district school, where with stout birch rods the sunbons to the classroom. Every pupil will be compelled to say "her piece."

The committee arranging the holiday jinks—the reward for the giving of much happiness to others during the season—is composed of Mrs. Arthur Read, Mrs. E. M. Breed, Mrs. George S. Beadle, Mrs. W. A. Carroll.

Preliminary plans for the annual convention of the Second District, California Congress of Mothers, will be discussed at an executive board meeting which Mrs. H. G. Tardy, president, has called for Thursday, Hotel Ramona in San Francisco. The session will extend throughout the day. Reports of chairman of the various departments of education activity will contribute another interesting feature.

The invitation of the San Mateo Federation to hold the annual convention in that city in April has already been accepted by the district officers.

—England, France and America find orange blossoms the ideal crown for their brides, while pink carnations and red roses deck the brides of Spain.

"Why An Aeroplane Flies" will be told to the Adelphi club women and their guests on Thursday afternoon next by Professor Baldwin C. Woods of Berkeley. A musical program will be offered by Mrs. Baldwin C. Woods.

Mrs. R. R. Rogers of Hayward, a member of the Alameda district, C. P. W. C., will be the guest of honor at the January union meeting. The program has been arranged by Mrs. Herman Krust, who will act as hostess.

Professor E. T. Williams of the University of California will present a lecture at the Home Club on Thursday night, substituting for Dr. David P. Barrows who has cancelled the last of the series he was to have given. "American Relations With China" will be the subject of the lecture. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. W. Is Backache Making You Miserable?

It isn't right to drag along from day to day feeling weak, miserable—half sick. You want to be well, and the best way to get well is to find out what is making you feel so badly and try to correct it. Perhaps it's your kidneys. A cold, a strain, worry or overwork may have weakened the kidneys and brought on that throbbing backache or those sharp, stabbing pains that wear your nerves and keep you tired, fretful, "all unstrung."

You may have morning lameness, too, headaches, dizzy spells and irregular kidney action. Don't wait! Neglect may mean more serious troubles—dropsy, gravel or dangerous Bright's disease. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. They have helped thousands of ailing folks. They should help you. Ask your neighbor!

These are Oakland Cases:

Seventh Avenue	Thirty-Third Avenue	Ninety-Fourth Street
Mrs. J. G. Hodgkin, 1634 Seventh Ave., says: "I can vouch for the worth of Doan's Kidney Pills, as a kidney and backache remedy. My experience with them has proven their value. I can't recommend Doan's too highly and I have recommended them many times to those I have heard complain of backache or kidney and bladder difficulties."	W. W. Lyon, 936 Thirty-third avenue, says: "A cold affected my kidneys and put them out of condition. Every muscle of my back weakened and ached something fearful. At night I had to arise to pass the kidney secretions and consequently didn't enjoy a good night's rest. My back was so lame and stiff I couldn't bend over. Every day Doan's Kidney Pills were publicly recommended by people here in Oakland, so I got a box and used them myself. Doan's certainly did all that is claimed of them. They regulated and flushed out my kidneys and now I feel like a different man."	Mrs. K. Steffens, 1650 Ninety-fourth St., says: "My kidneys were in such bad condition I could hardly move. When I bent over, it seemed as though my back would break, and I would get dizzy and pitch forward. There were other signs of kidney weakness, and I certainly suffered. During the day I felt so miserable and exhausted I could hardly get around. Doan's Kidney Pills were what my kidneys needed, because they soon cured me. I have felt fine ever since."
Forty-First Avenue	East Fourteenth Street
GEO. W. POWELL, plumber, 1601 Forty-first Ave., says: "There is no doubt that Doan's Kidney Pills are one dependable kidney medicine. I caught cold and it settled on my kidneys and put them in awfully bad condition. There was weakness across my back and every time I moved quickly or bent over, something would happen and give me a pain. Spots of blood before my eyes, and everything blurred. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and was soon rid of the trouble. I felt like a different man. Since then I have always had Doan's on hand and have used them now and then as a preventive of kidney complaint."	Mrs. Emma T. Baird, 9410 E. Fourteenth St., says: "I suffered from a severe attack of kidney complaint. It came on very quickly and I believe the heat and overwork caused the trouble. My back was very painful and I knew from other symptoms my kidneys were disordered. I knew the value of Doan's Kidney Pills and used some. After taking four boxes, every symptom had left and I was free from every sign of kidney trouble."

Second, more singing and better singing at the monthly executive meetings. Alameda County Leaguers can sing and improve over the present volume and quantity of song material by making a concerted effort to sing a new song at each meeting. A chorus for use at the quarterly rallies and the spring convention.

Third, the formation of a large orchestra or symphony to take part in the musical program. It is suggested that many of the members of this orchestra will be recruited from among the best musicians from all the Alameda Leagues in Alameda County. It is suggested that the orchestra prove to be one of the big drawing cards at the Epworth League

Alameda county Epworthians are known far and wide for their ability to sing. Let's make the coming year count in song and music of the better sort.

COMMUNION AT ST. ELIZABETH'S

At St. Elizabeth Catholic church, of which the Rev. Father Idebom is the pastor, the resurrection and sermon will be held Sunday. General holy communion of both sexes will be observed at the 8 o'clock mass. This 8 day being the feast of the Young Ladies' day will be the usual collection taken for the building fund, also the usual collection for the Young Ladies' memorial mass for the deceased members of this parish. The junior march of the Young Ladies of Mary will march in the afternoon.

St. Elizabeth parish are the proud possessors of the $1500 check earned as grand prize for the 1934-35 label campaign. It will be applied to the new church fund. With a group of 15 young ladies, a very organized band of this parish began rehearsals last week under the direction of Miss Mary Ann O'Connell who promises the music lovers of the parish that there is a treat in store for them.

Members of the members of the St. Aloysius Sodality had a very congenial social not long ago, when everybody enjoyed with ice cream and cakes.
